

BIG QUESTION: Why is Edward Wilson a famous Cheltonian?

TIMELINE

23rd July 1872 Edward Wilson born 	15th June 1910 Terra Nova Expedition left Cardiff 	18th January 1912 Wilson and his crew reached the South Pole 	29th March 1912 Edward Wilson died (aged 39) 	2013 – present day Cheltenham Art Gallery renamed to 'The Wilson'
---	---	---	--	--

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Edward Wilson was a scientist, doctor, explorer and an artist. 	VOCABULARY WE WILL USE:
	South Pole	The furthest point south on the planet.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Edward Wilson was born in Cheltenham and died in Antarctica. 	Expedition	A journey that people take to learn or do something.
	Antarctica	The South Polar region of Earth.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Edward Wilson was part of the expedition "Terra Nova". 	Explorer	A person who likes to travel to new places and learn more about them.
	Cardiff	Capital city of Wales. Where the Terra Nova expedition set sail from.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Edward Wilson's expedition was led by Captain Robert Scott. 	Exhausted	Very tired.
	Blizzard	Snow storm with high winds.